

Dr. Metta Usha Rani is an Assistant Professor, and also Incharge Head, Department of M.A. (Economics) from Satavahana Institute of Post Graduate studies, Karimnagar and Ph.D. from Kakatiya University. She had worked as a Research Associate, under Prof. G.K. Chadha at Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi in relation to a Project connected to International Labour Organisation (ILO). She worked as a Research Assistant, under Prof. Shyamala Devi Rathore at Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi. She got published 20 Research Articles and presented and participated in 30 National and International Seminars, Conferences and Workshops. Some Articles, Short Stories have been published in different social magazines. She is a resource person at some Seminars, Workshops and worked as Co-Ordinator for Women Empowerment Cell at Manthani. Guided students, who were selected for the Summer Internship by the Ministry of Human Resource Development. Now, she is the Head of the Department and has put in 30 years of Teaching Experience. Her areas of interest are Econometrics, Macro Economics, Rural Development, Economic Criminology and Women Studies.