

Dr. Vannala Ramesh

Dr. Vannala Ramesh is an Assistant Professor, Department of Sociology, S.U. He holds M. Phil and Ph.D. degrees from Osmania University Hyderabad. He is actively associated with academic institutions, NGOs and the Government sectors. He is involved in project studies which are related to Urban and Rural Poverty, Child Labour, Child Education, and Tribal Development and Gender Studies. He has worked on interview schedules, prepared them and guided field investigators for planning and monitoring. These projects were duly recognized by the World Bank and State and Central governments in India. He has published fourteen research papers and chapters in books and journals. He has attended national seminars and presented ten papers. He has the distinction of attending two international seminars i.e. Georgia and Hawaii. Further, he has attended Orientation and Refresher courses as part of academics. He has worked as a Project Assistant, Research Associate and then Research Officer for different projects. He had the distinction to serve as member of Central Advisory Board on Child Labour, Ministry of Labour and Employment, Government of India from 2005-2008. He extended his services as Programme Coordinator, NSS SU from 2009-2014. As a senior researcher, he guides four scholars in the department of Sociology, OU, and Hyderabad. Presently he is Controller of Examinations, SU, Karimnagar.